

Cargo Handling

Ports in the Philippines do not have appropriate equipment to handle your cargo. It is important to get an experienced cargo handler with owned equipment. Vessel demurrage can occur when forwarders use companies with out the necessary experience and equipment. Our Engineering Dept. will allow your company the approval process for extra confidence. Route surveys for land transport is key to the final successful delivery of you cargo.